PROMINENT DISTILLER PASSES AWAY

John Traylor Dies at Home Near Gilberts Creek As The Result Of Blood Poisoning.

John Traylor, one of the best known distillers in this part of the state, and a leading resident of the county, passed away at his home in the Gilberts Creek section of this county Wednesday. For many years he had operated the John Traylor distillery at Gilberts Creek, his brother, Henry Traylor, operating the Edgewood distillery farther up on Dix river. Mr. Traylor had been in ill health for some time, and while his death was hardly unexpected, still it came as a sad blow to his friends and loved ones. The immediate cause of his death was blood poisoning. His wife and children were with him when the end came and now that the loving husband and father is no more, they have the sympathy of everyone.

Mr. Traylor was born in Lincoln county and lived here practically all his life. Besides his wife, he is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Ivon Fish, of Crab Orchard, Mrs. S. K. Dudders, of this city, Miss Polly Duane Traylor and two younger daughters, twins.

The funeral of Mr. Traylor was conducted at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Rev. J. G. Livingston, of Crab Orchard. Interment was in the Goshen cemetery.

Sweet Young Girl Passes Away Near Hustonville.

Miss Bessie Talmage Lyon, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lyon, near Hustonville, on the Middleburg pike, died at their home Wednesday, after a short illness of pneumonia. She was a sweet child and very popular with all, and her loss is a severe one to her parents.

She will be laid to rest in the Hustonville cemetery this Friday, morning, at 10:30 o'clock, after services at the home by Rev. B. J. Pinkerton.

J. L. Fagaley No More.

J. L. Fagaley, a prominent resident of the Waynesburg community, died at his home on Tuesday and was buried Thursday after services in the Porter Grove Methodist church. Mr. Fagaley was 65 years of age. He came to Lincoln county from Ohio and had the respect of everyone who knew him. He is survived by three children. Mr. Fagaley's death was caused by congestion of the lungs. He had been ill but a short time.

Free Seed Corn

Will Be Given Away And Growers Organized Today.

W. H. Strange, representing the State Department of Agriculture, will be in Stanford this Friday, afternoon, about 1 o'clock for the purpose of forming a Corn Growers' Association, and distributing three bushels of seed corn free to the members of the association. Much good has been accomplished by these organizations of corn growers and a much better and more prolific crop of corn is being produced every year by better selection of the seed corn. Every farmer in Lincoln county who raises corn is urged to be present and join the association, which costs nothing, and get some of the seed corn.

Court Day Sales

Six Hundred Cattle On Market
And Demand Brisk For All.

There were altogether about 600 cattle on the market here court day, and practically every one of them changed hands. Stockmen and traders from all over this part of the state were on hand at Nunneley's stock yards and there was a brisk demand for everything that was offered. So good is the market here that Mr. Nunneley has men over the surrounding country looking for cattle to buy, and then can not secure enough to satisfy the demands that are made upon him.

He bought from C. A. Hammond, of Russell county, 78 mixed cattle at from 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 cts. Mr. Hammond and U. T. Selby, also of Russell, bought 54 steers from Charley Pile, of the McKinney section, and immediately sold them to M. J. Farris, of Danville. A. T. Nunneley sold to George Peel, of Jessamine, 50 cattle at 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cts. He sold to Mr. Farris, of Danville, 24 cows at 2 1/2 to 4 1/2 cts. and sold a bunch to Harris Bros., of the Hubble section, at 6c. Anderson Carr, sold six yearling Jersey to heifers to Lutes & Arnold at a good figure.

Jones & Cress sold 12 700-pound cattle to Hill, of Garrard county, at $175, and they sold to M. J. Farris, 25 cows at 3 1/2 cts and bought a number of hogs at 9c for delivery May 1st.

William Spoonamore sold a nice iron gray mare to J. J. Seavers for $175, and the latter was offered $200 for her shortly afterwards.

T. C. Rankin bought of L. Rankin 15 two-year-old cattle at $35.

Had Key To London Jail.

George Farmer, who made his escape from the London jail in a mysterious manner last Friday, was captured in Pulaski county by Deputy U. S. Marshal George Thompson and Frank Mullins and is again in custody of the jailer of Laurel.

A key to a side door that is never used and which had been lost for some time when the present jailer took charge, was found in one of the prisoner's shoes.

Still Destroyed In Rockcastle.

Deputy Collector F. P. Elliott, of this city, made a raid on Skaggs' Creek, in Rockcastle county, and destroyed a fine copper still and complete outfit for distilling moonshine whisky, with several hundred gallons of beer and mash. It was one of the best equipped plants for making moonshine whisky ever captured in the mountains.—London Democrat.

Druggist Acquitted.

BROTHER OF LOCAL MAN KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Walter Warren Receives Sad News
Of Fearful Death Of A. T.
Warren In Texas.

Arthur Thomas Warren, brother of Walter Warren, of Stanford, was one of the victims of a premature explosion of powder on the Santa Fe railroad near Brownwood, Texas, early in the week. He was foreman of the blasting crew, and it is believed that his body was blown to atoms as he was immediately in the neighborhood of the explosion, in which eight others were killed. Mr. Warren received several telegrams this week to the effect that no trace of his brother's body had been found. He directed that every effort be made to find it for burial, if he was dead. Some believe that his body was buried under tons of rock.

The dispatches from the scene of the catastrophe said that 1,500 pounds of dynamite was touched off prematurely and the explosion sent men and debris hundreds of feet into the air. The men were working in a deep cut and caught the full force of the fearful blast.

The missing victim had lived here in Lincoln county for some time several years ago, and had visited his brother here.

High Value On Dogs

Tom Hackley Refuses to "Swap" Fox Hound For A Mule.

J. T. Hackley, Jr., is the boss fox hound breeder in this part of the country. He has just shipped dogs to six different states, and nearly all his shipments have been to old customers, showing that they are pleased. He sent one to Mississippi, two to Tennessee, one to Oklahoma, one to Ohio, one to New York and one to Illinois. Mr. Hackley values his hounds so highly that he refused an offer to trade one for a mule, made him by Geo. Holmes last week. At the prices mules are selling at present, this puts a pretty high valuation on fox hounds. Mr. Hackley breeds the old Walker strain of dogs and thinks they are the best in the world.

Hubble.

Everybody is busy getting ready to plant corn.

Farris Fitzpatrick and wife are both on the sick list. Uncle Charley Duke is laid up with a sore foot, the result of frost bite.

Tobacco men are complaining that their tobacco beds are not coming up. A. P. Sloan sold a mare to Wm. King, of Boyle, for $150. A. A. Rankin sold some two-year-old cattle to T. C. Rankin at $35 a head.

Miss Nannie Sloan has returned to Berea after spending several days with her parents here.

R. L. Hubble is building a tobacco barn. J. C. Eubanks is cutting timber to build a large tobacco barn. Mr. Gooch, of the Highland section, will saw his lumber. R. F. Sloan writes from Nevada, Iowa, that he is well-pleased with the country.

The lamp in Mrs. J. L. Sloan's incubator exploded, setting the house on fire. She succeeded in putting it out, but was slightly burned about the head and face.

J. N. Sloan, of Bryantsville, visited his brother, A. P. Sloan, Sunday.

McKINNEY.

The honor roll of the McKinney school is as follows: Marjory Cockings, Pearl Jarboe, Grace Elliott, Ollie Crump, Helen Jones, Patterson Tanner, John Murphy and James Cannon. Miss Lipps, the teacher, has done splendid work this term and the patrons are much pleased.

A WYOMING GIRL will be presented at Walton's Opera House on Monday night April 18. It is a beautiful play of Western life and the characters are highly recommended. Miss Daisy Hazelton, who is starring in the part of "Scissors," gives a beautiful and picturesque creation of Western life. Remember the date, Monday night, April 18.

Taken to Louisville.

John Owsley Reid Improved Sufficiently To Go In Automobile.

John Owsley Reid has improved to such an extent that he was taken to Louisville in an automobile Tuesday, and will have the personal care of Dr. McMurtry, his kinsman, in a hospital there. Despite the heavy downpour, it was felt that Mr. Reid's condition was such that he would run no risk in being transferred overland in his motor car.

Mr. Reid has had a long and hard tussle with the dread typhoid fever, but his many friends are delighted to know that he seems to have conquered it and it is believed now to be but a question of time as to his ultimate recovery.

Railroad Fined

For Carrying Over A Gallon of Booze Per Passenger Into Harrodsburg.

The latest wrinkle in the fight the officials of Harrodsburg are making to keep booze out is the fining in the police court last week of the Southern railroad to the tune of $50 and costs in each of three cases, amounting to $150. The charge against the railroad was that it had on three occasions carried a person as a passenger upon a ticket paid for by him, and in addition to carrying the passenger, carried with him more than one gallon of whisky from Lawrenceburg into Harrodsburg. The proof showed that on one occasion three gallons were brought in by one party, on another occasion three gallons and a quart and on another two gallons and three quarts. The railroad claimed that they did not charge anything for carrying the whisky, but charged the party alone for carrying him, and that their ticket obligated them to carry the passenger and personal baggage to the amount of not exceeding 150 pounds and that the whisky brought in each time was less than that in weight. It admitted that if it had brought it in as freight it would be guilty but denied that it was carried as freight.

It was argued for the city that if this was true any man who wanted to sell whisky in Harrodsburg could go to Lawrenceburg and for $1.14 could bring in a 150 pound keg all for the price of a ticket; and further that the local option law limited the amount of whisky a man could bring in as baggage to not exceed one gallon. Judge Grimes took this view of the case and held that the company was guilty in all three cases.

End of Celebrated Case.

The Tennessee supreme court affirmed the sentence against Col. Duncan B. Cooper for the murder of former Senator Edward W. Carmack, but reversed the sentence against Robin J. Cooper on the ground of errors. Before the dissenting opinion had been read in the case of Col. Cooper, Gov. Patterson issued a pardon to the convicted man.

Clark Farris Dead.

Garrard County Veteran Dies At Confederate Home.

News was received here Wednesday of the death at the Confederate Home, at Pewee Valley, of R. Clark Farris, who has been living there for about two years, having been stricken with paralysis. He was long a resident of Garrard county and no man in this part of the State was better known or stood higher in the esteem of all.

Mr. Farris was 72 years of age at the time of his death. He was a brother of the late John R. Farris. Mr. Farris' wife died some years ago and he leaves one daughter, Mrs. George Holmes, of Lexington, one brother, T. S. Farris, of California, better known as "Bub," and three sisters, Mrs. John Engleman, Sr., and Mrs. C. V. Gentry, of this city, and Mrs. Sam Engleman, of California. He was a member of Capt. Bob Logan's company, as was his brother John, and served with Morgan, being captured on the Ohio raid. He and his brother saved the life of Col. Grigsby when Morgan and his brave men swam the Ohio river. Grigsby's horse was killed at half way and the two brothers at great peril to themselves turned their horses, and their colonel grasping a stirrup leather of each saddle, they landed him safely on the other shore.

Mr. Farris' remains were buried in the old soldiers' cemetery at the Home where so many of his brave old comrades lie, there to await the last reveille on resurrection morn.

Mr. C. V. Gentry went to Louisville yesterday to attend the burial.

Return Game

Hal Grimes, manager of the Harrodsburg team, inquiring about the organization of an amateur league to be composed of Harrodsburg, Hustonville, Lancaster and Stanford. The Hustonville boys have a good team this year, the line-up being as follows: Bishop, C; Swope, C; Dunn, P; Swope, 1st B; G. Dunn, 2nd B; Neal, 3rd B; C. Dunn, SS; Staggs LF; Hall, CF; Carpenter, RF.

HOW TO SECURE CO-OPERATION OF PARENTS

Teachers At City Schools Write On Subject—Paper That Was Considered The Best.

THE teachers in the Stanford city schools have had regular meetings throughout the year. They meet not so much for social intercourse as to study and discuss the problems of the work of bettering the school system. In their study they have just completed a text entitled, Chamberlain's Standards in Education. "How to Secure the Co-operation of Patrons" was a subject assigned them for the April meeting. A committee examined the papers and the one which follows was regarded as worthy of publication. They all deserve to be published, for good thought and well defined plans are in each one. This will go to show some that often while the pupils and patrons sleep the teacher is studying for the interest of each. This was written by Miss Claudia Eaton.

INTEREST AND CO-OPERATION OF PARENTS.

In referring to the mighty sovereigns of powerful nations, we speak of "the power behind the throne," yet in the pursuits of practical life, naught is mentioned of the hand that shapes the destiny of so many of our fellow workers. The renowned inventors, authors, statesmen, orators and other learned men of our land have had some incentive, however small it may have been, through which they have achieved their great work, and whereby they have climbed round by round the ladder of success, only, at last, to attain the summit of all glory and fame. That word of encouragement to a struggling apprentice, or that determination imparted to the faint-hearted, was the power, in its results, behind a weak and tottering throne.

As we mold the character of the children of today, so will the citizens of tomorrow be. The child is the throne; the parents "the power behind the throne." The mothers and fathers are the keepers of the key to the lives of their children. With this precious article they may turn to the right, which leads to the path of righteousness; or to the left, which opens to the road of wrong-doing.

For whom has the boy the same feeling of respect and reverence as for his father? Even the most willful and disobedient are influenced to a greater or less extent by the words of warning that fall from the lips of his parents. The parents spare no expense that their children may be well clothed, well fed and last, but not least, well trained. The children are finally sent to school, placed under the thorough training of a qualified tutor and, as far as the parents are concerned, their duties are completed at this stage.

In the pedagogical profession, the successful teacher, in order to accomplish the most satisfactory work, endeavors to understand each child perfectly. This is impossible without the assistance of the parents. How can a teacher, who has had a child under her or his instruction for the brief period of a month, understand the disposition of that child, as the parents who, for 14 or more years, have watched every movement with a mother's care and a father's pride? The teacher's aim is to give to her pupils the best that in her lies; and in return, to obtain from the pupils the best results that they are capable of rendering. It is impossible to reach each child in the same manner. Yet the teacher has 30 or 40 pupils of various inclinations. What then is to be done?

A few days after a zealous teacher takes charge of a class, she will be able, if called upon to do so, to go down her roll-call, writing after each pupil's name industrious, ambitious, mischievous, indifferent, apt, dull, nervous, careless, or even troublesome; of course in each case using the word applicable to the child as a pupil. Now that the teacher has discovered the difficulty that prevents the child from becoming a student, she seeks to remove the obstacle. There is the boy who cares nothing about school, except to give his teacher as much trouble as possible and to influence others to do the same. The teacher leads him aside, tells him of the value of an education; all to no avail. Then she tells him of the pleasure it would give his parents for him to do well; no effect is apparent. Then she reproaches him; the result is even worse. Finally, grasping at the last hope, she resorts to rebuking and chastisement, but the boy is only hardened by this method, as he has long been accustomed to it. The teacher has tried first one plan and then another, until her resources are exhausted and she gives up in despair. By chance, she asks for his assistance in a trifling affair. The minute that the boy realizes (Continued on Fourth Page.)

of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

AND still they come. The papers of the Eighth Congressional district are not going to be laggards and permit the other country papers of the state to secure all the honor and credit of demanding that this district's favorite son is the Moses to lead the democratic children out of the wilderness. The Danville Advocate views the situation well in this editorial: That the straight and well-defined path out of the slough of despond for the democratic party in Kentucky is the nomination of James B. McCreary to serve a second term as governor of the commonwealth can not be logically disputed by anybody conversant with circumstances as they exist at the present time. No other name that could be mentioned would have the same tendency to unite the factions and none other would be surer of an election. Having ably and honestly served his fellow citizens in every position to which they exalted him in the past; having won the esteem and respect of his political enemies as well as the love and admiration of his friends, and having once made the State what is known in its history as "the model governor," if he could again be induced to enter the gubernatorial arena, there is not a republican opponent who could successfully stand before him. And what a step upward it would be from Willson to McCreary! Just think about it for a moment, contrasting the conditions prevailing when the latter was governor and those existent at the present time, and which are likely to be perpetuated indefinitely if republicanism is again successful by the mistake of the democracy in nominating a weaker candidate, and who is there that will say McCreary is not the Moses to lead the children of Israel into the promised land?

Electro-Medical Baths for the sick.

We beg to inform you that we have installed our outfit for giving Electro-Medical Baths. This treatment as given by us is practically the same as that given at the famous Spas of Europe and some of the Mineral Springs and large Sanitariums in this country for the cure of nervous and chronic diseases, and especially those diseases arising from an excess of uric acid in the system. Uric acid, by accumulating in the system in excess, poisons the blood and causes a great variety of diseases affecting the organs of respiration, digestion and excretion. It causes diseases of the skin and mucous surfaces, the heart and arteries, brain and nervous system, muscles and joints.

The uric acid condition is the cause of Rheumatism in its various forms; also diseases of kidneys and bladder, asthma, quincy and bronchitis, catarrh, eczema, hives, itching and burning of the skin, palpitation of the heart, cold hands and feet, dizziness, mental depression, melancholia, neuralgia, chorea, hysteria, numbness, headaches and a great variety of purely nervous symptoms. Old age and people of middle life are the greatest sufferers, but the young are not exempt.

A course—2 to 4 weeks—of our Electro-Medical Baths cleanses the system of the uric acid and other toxic compounds; and by removing the cause of disease, gives quick relief and a lasting cure. These baths in connection with our Violet Light Treatment, relax nerve tension, produce sound sleep, improve appetite and digestion and by so doing cure nervous diseases, headaches, insomnia, neurasthenia, nervous exhaustion, melancholia, etc.

Obese, or over fat people, get rid of 7 to 10 pounds per week without injury to heart or digestion, and with great improvement in health and appearance.

You are invited to consult with us freely in regard to yourself or friends.

Rubbing an aching back may relieve it, but it won't cure it.

You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it; Reach the cause; relieve the pain. They cure, too, so Stanford people say.

Capt. Thomas Richards, W. Main Street, Stanford, Ky., says: "Many years ago my kidneys began to trouble me. My back grew so lame that I could not stoop and I slept poorly at night. Sometimes an almost complete retention of the secretions existed, then again I had a frequent desire to pass them. When the secretions were voided, a burning pain was in evidence. I finally had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and I commenced their use. This remedy gave me great relief and in view of my experience, I consider it the best preparation of its kind I have ever taken. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to scores of people and everyone has reported that good results have followed their use."

Farmers should eat more oatmeal.

Although the farmer of today is able to buy almost anything he wants to wear or to eat he isn't paying enough attention to food values when it comes to his own table.

If he has been watching the extensive researches and experiments on the question of the best human food for muscle and brain he will heed the advice from all sides to "eat more Quaker Oats."

Quaker Oats is mentioned because it is recognized in this country and Europe as the best of all oatmeals. Feeding farm hands on Quaker Oats means getting more work out of them than if you feed them on anything else.

For hot climates it is packed in hermetically sealed tins; regular size package 10c.

Cecilian Leaf,

Sired by Red Leaf (21393), the "greatest" of all roadsters; 1st dam Day Maid by Cecilian, he by Gambetta Wilkes; 2d dam Nell by Balsora 1024; 3d dam Noon Day by St. Elmo 275; 4th dam by Pilot, Jr. 12.

In Cecilian Leaf the blood of C. F. Clay and Red Wilkes is united with that of Gambetta Wilkes and Pilot, Jr., and should prove a cross which cannot be excelled.

Cecilian Leaf is a well developed, registered trotting colt, four years old. He is a rich bay with two white hind feet and a star; is exceptionally rangy for a trotting horse, especially graceful in the neck; stands full 15 3/4 hands; has high action and lots of style and finish, which, in addition to his speed, makes him an ideal horse for the stud. These qualities are just what is needed in a sire to breed high class harness and walk-trot horses, and it is the walk-trot that sells for the most money and has the readiest sale. Cecilian Leaf is unmarked but can trot in 2:28; He will go for a record this summer.

He will make the season at the Pink Cottage barn 1 1/2 miles from Stanford on the Hustonville pike. The fee to a limited number of approved mares this season will be $15 for a living colt. Season fee due when mare is parted with.

In offering the services of this young horse whose sire and whose dam's sire are among the very foremost of all Kentucky's horses as sires of fancy show horses, I believe that I am making you an offer of rare merit.

The flag raising that was postponed sometime ago on account of bad weather, will be held here Friday on the Graded School grounds, when a big time is expected. The band will make music and there will be other exercises to entertain those present.

It seems that there is going to be something doing here this summer. A half dozen residences will likely be built, besides considerable repairing done. Our people have gotten a move on themselves at last, and the town will likely show a decided improvement before the frosts of another winter.

think that if they raise 20 bushels of wheat or 15 barrels of corn to the acre they are doing well.

ARIZONA RANCHES raise from 6 to 9 crops of Alfalfa a year; yield from 1 1/2 to 2 tons to the acre per cutting, which sells from $10 to $20 per ton. We have ranches that yield two crops of corn a year, and no dry years, for all we have to do to make it rain, is to turn on the water in the irrigation ditches.

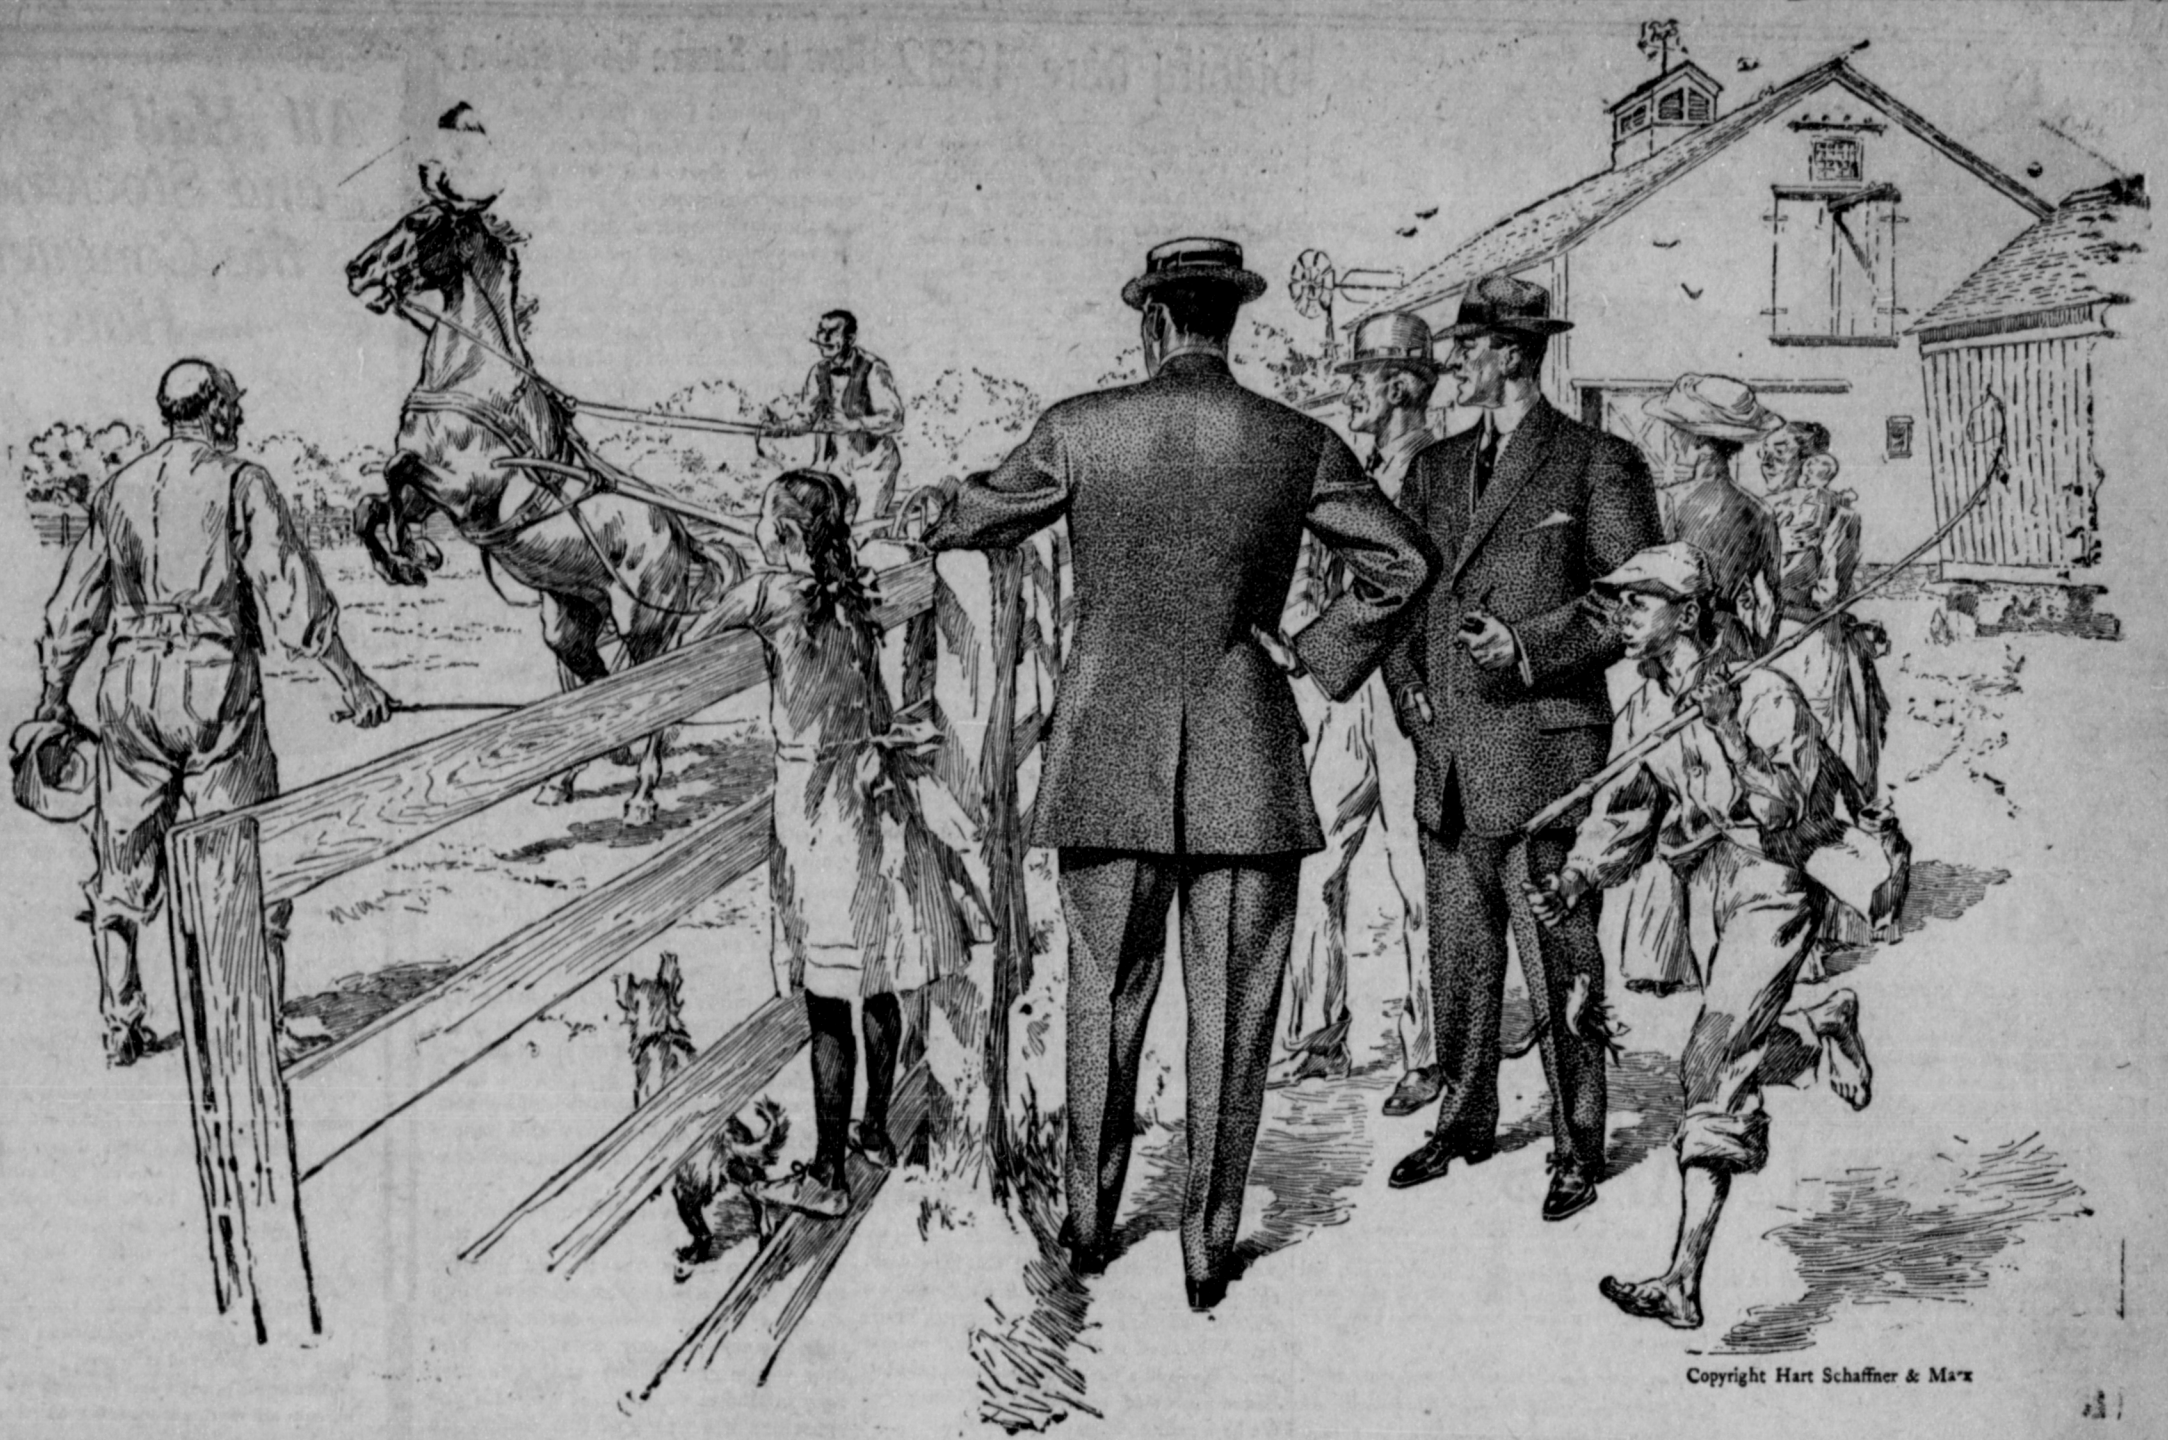

We have fruit ranches, cattle ranches, chicken ranches, hay ranches and, in fact, anything in the ranch line, large or small, and at all kinds of prices.

Arizona will soon become a state and is coming to the front very rapidly. All kinds of property are in great demand and getting higher every day. Railroads are being built; gold, copper and zinc mines producing untold wealth, and we have the finest climate in the world. All inquiries answered promptly.

"BREAKING to harness" is pretty lively work sometimes; but if it's well done, the results are usually good. We've broken a lot of high spirited fellows to our clothes; and we expect to keep on doing it. The man we especially like to "tackle" is the fellow who thinks we can't persuade him that these fine clothes, made for us by are better than any he gets made to measure; economy for him; better style, better quality. We're convincing a lot of just such skeptics right along. The clothes do it; all we have to do is to get them tried on. Men are sometimes a little stubborn about that, but once they get into the clothes, that settles it. They're the best, the most economical, the most stylish, and about the only clothes that you know are all-wool.

We like to get the other fellow, too, who thinks these clothes are too high priced; he's easy, if he once gets started; the economy is too apparent.

How to Secure Co-operation

that he is of some importance, he is at once on the alert and willing to do whatever is requested. Not one pupil in a thousand requires this manner of approachment. But the teacher might have been saved all this trouble and anxiety if she had engaged the parents in a heart-to-heart talk concerning the boy. The misunderstandings that have sprung up between parents and teacher might have been avoided if they had really understood the situation. And, lastly, the boy might not have been so indifferent, slovenly and troublesome, had he known that his mother and father were eager for a mutual understanding between their son and the new teacher.

Rambler says—"There can be no friendship without confidence; no confidence without integrity." So the parent and teacher must have confidence in each other; and whatever circumstances may arise, be perfectly honest in dealing with the matter.

For a parent to be actually interested in his child, he must have a concern, whether it be pleasant or painful, accompanying especial attention to his son or daughter in the school-room. When we reach the stage that the parents will feel this steadfast solicitude in their children as pupils, both the parents and the teacher will be ready to extend a helping hand to uplift the one who is down-hearted and discouraged. No two classes of people should be more congenial than the parents and teachers. For one to work without the other is impossible.

A small child just entering school has implicit confidence in his teacher. But after pupils reach the higher grades, they become aware that teachers, like all other mortals on this earth, are neither omniscient nor infallible. And thus we might reason that a teacher may misjudge a child. If parents are conscious of a wrong of this nature to which their child is subjected, they should enlighten the teacher. A pupil might study very diligently, yet on account of some impediment or physical defect, recite discreditably. Another pupil might render an acceptable recitation, yet spend very little time or thought on the preparation of the lesson. Yet on account of the difference in the two recitations, the teacher censures the former and praises the latter. A child should not be judged altogether on how he recites, but on what he is capable of doing.

A teacher's place is one of untold responsibility. Parents send their children to school not only to be taught what is printed in the text books, but to be trained in culture, refinement, morality and all that tends to the development of true womanhood and manhood. The minds of children can be turned to what direction we please. Impressions made on young minds are of vast importance and long duration. "Childhood shows the man, as morning shows the day." Parents are the sole directors of the management of their children.

At home, the child's comfort is usually cared for to a distressing degree; every luxury that can be afforded is provided. Yet a few years later, these same parents will, unconsciously, neglect their children so far as to send them to unsanitary schools.

The splendid school structures, the progressive corps of teachers, the healthy, robust pupils, are found in communities where the interested patrons are. No permanent advancement can possibly be made without the enthusiastic assistance of the parents. A new system might be introduced, but only to be condemned by the criticising public.

Real friendship is not so much love for each other as love for the same thing. Yet a friend is the most needless of creatures, if he is of no assistance. The parent and teacher are both interested in the child, with their mutual assistance they can convince the child of his faults and errors and lead him to see that the corrections he receives are not intended so much to please the instructor, but are for his own advantage.

Children often become indifferent toward their school work and consequently recite their lessons in a half-hearted manner. But the instant a visitor enters the door, the regular monotony of school life has been broken and it is an attentive class that hears the words of the teacher. The most ambitious child loses interest, if he thinks that he is not receiving the attention and credit which is due him as a student. Children, unlike grown people, have never learned the art of deceit.

Citizens, who have no children in school, should be sufficiently interested in school advancement to realize that the "children are the tomorrow of society." The pictures which hang on the walls are not the decorations of our institutions of learning. The ornaments of our schools are the friends who frequent them. The child would soon look upon school as his temporary home if his parents were not strangers to the schools. As it is he thinks of his education simply as a connecting link in the chain of his existence, which, if broken, can be repaired without much damage to the chain.

The looking-glass is said to be our best friend. It reflects that which is All Hail to the Farmers and Stockmen! Behold the Conquering Herds Have Come!

The fine young Jack Excelsior sire Emperor; dam Hidalgo jennet, imported, will make the season of 1910 at the Cedar Creek Valley Stock, Grass, Hay, Grain and Tobacco Farm, 2 1-2 miles south of Crab Orchard, Ky., on the Chappell's Gap pike. He was specially selected from the "Great Jack Herd" of Mr. Isaac Shelby Tevis, Traveler's Rest, prior to his jack sale two years ago; for the 1,000-acre ranch. This jack is in his fifth year; is black in color with characteristic gray trimmings—a true picture of an ideal jack: a paragon of style, symmetry and perfection; has magnificent head, ears, neck and body; a strong, pleasant countenance expressing gratitude; alert, aquiline eyes; the ears the right size, form and beauty, that vibrate in unison and harmony; animated by true and fond emotions. The neck, shoulders, trunk, feet, legs, thighs, muscles, sinews, bones and tail correspond in unique proportions and at once indicate he is a picturesque model to his Jackship. He has the action, agility and animation of a "racer" or Arabian steed, and demonstrates to the beholder, he is the gifted son of a noble sire, and has always transmitted to his colts size, form, symmetry, style and beauty with elegance, and these attributes make them sell high! All colts of his have been mare mules except two and all have sold from $65 to $125 at weaning or soon after weaning except two; they are not for sale. Excelsior has a strong, snoring rhythmic, tenor voice and brays the hours in chronological order; and in short or long metre, sings:

Onky! Onky! Onky! I say; I say! Excelsior—the Royal Donkey!

Was sired and foaled in Old Kentucky; And lives to work and for luck.

I say! I say! I'm the Royal Donkey!

I say! I say, See and hear the Royal Donkey!

Chorus—Onky! Onky! Onky!

Jenny, Jenny, Jenny, my Jenny!

Onky! Onky! Onky!

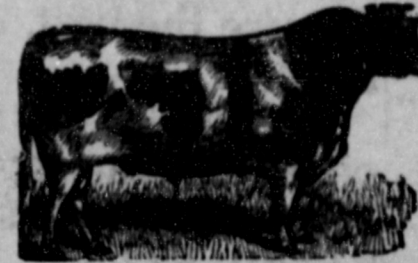

By special permission the following gentlemen and citizens of Lincoln county have kindly consented to be used as reference and endorsement; having raised or purchased his produce and personally know this jack as a great breeder and that his colts are rated with the best; viz: Messrs. John Saylor, John Henry Harris, Brom F. Long, Morgan Chapple, George Holmes, Lute King, Bowen W. Givens, Jacobum Rettnersach and I. S. Tevis.

Excelsior will stand at $8 under same conditions as the stallion Redalgo. Excelsior is the sire of a very fine jennet colt and is destined to be a great jennet jack. The season for jennets will be $15.

Galton's Pedalgo

The young stallion, Galton's Pedalgo, will stand at the 1,000-Acre Ranch. He is a dark bay, 15 hands high, four years old; has all the essential factors of a model stallion. Sired by Galton 12910; dam Pedie, register No. 3715, she (by Falconer's Abdallah Membrino—the season cost $100; 2d dam Lottie Morey by C. F. Clay, etc., etc. This stallion combines the blood of the Hambletonian, Wilkes, Membrino, Seely, American Star and Clay families, and will stand at $10 to a limited number of good mares. Lien retained on colts until season is paid. Money due at once if mare is sold or traded. Will not be responsible for accidents or escape of mares. Mares pastured at $2 per month. If you want stylish, fast trotters, breed to Pedalgo.

Bullbine, the Peerless.

A hornless, red Short Horn Bull; an ideal animal in color form, style, size, symmetry, weight, muscle and bone, will stand at One Dollar, cash at the lot, with privilege of return.

All farmers should raise the best beef cattle; it pays to keep the best. It is the bull that is the great factor in transmitting ideal conditions and developments in the herd. Therefore, bring your cows and get calves you will be proud of and that will sell themselves without chin music. Farmers who breed to the best sires, raise the best stock and get the best prices. We ask the country to purchase at the market price the progeny of these fine animals over other buyers.

The King of Lincoln

A notable and prolific sire. This Jersey bull was sired by Dr. Vaught No. 72945; dam Roberta No. 123610, "A. J. C. C., No. 8 West 17th St., New York, N. Y." will stand at Tares Dollars, cash at the lot, with privilege of return. Cows and heifers pastured at reasonable rates. This bull's progeny have been 85 per cent heifers. His high grade heifers have sold from $35 to $50 per head as short and low yearlings. Every family should have a good Jersey cow, as a matter of comfort, economy, good living. Always have golden Jersey cream and butter, for no other tastes like this good, yellow butter.

Stockmen and tobacco raisers will do well to keep their eyes on 1,000-Acre Ranch with its fine stock, grassy pastures, abundant water, prolific limestone and much virgin soil, picturesque forests and timber and beautiful landscapes, wire fences and grand pikes, numerous tenant houses and tobacco barns. This land produces the finest quality of tobacco; crop of 1908 sold for 16 1-2 cents; 1909 crop sold for 15 cents per pound.

John B. & Jamie G. Carpenter, Jr.,

Managers,

R. F. D. No. 1,

Crab Orchard, Ky.

CARROLL PRESTON.

Sired by Preston 922, by Washington 54, by Cromwell 73, by Washington Denmark 64.
1st dam Baby Pence, sired by Enoch Arden, 2nd dam Lady Pence by Belmont Forest 2863, 3rd dam by Garrard Chief.

He is a beautiful bay 15 1/4 hands high four years of age. He has more natural action than any horse living, and from his success as a show horse in his three year old form bids fair to make a greater show horse than his grand old sire, being undefeated in his class as a three year old and always getting his part in the stakes against the crack show horses of 1909.

This great young stallion will make the season of 1910 at the stock yards of A. T. Nunnally, Stanford Ky., at the reasonable figure of $25 to insure a living colt. Mares kept at $2.50 per month, and not responsible for accident or escape. Season due when mares are parted with or bred to other stock.

W. O. Walker, Stanford, Kentucky.

brought before it. There is no word of censure for the weakness thus displayed; none of praise for the strength of character shining from a bright countenance. The mirror is mute, simply giving what it receives. Yet would we call the teacher or the parent a true friend, if, after pointing out the defects of a child, she did not open the avenues of a better and more useful life?

Then the ideal school is the one whose patrons, teachers and pupils work together for one common cause and result. The ambitious teacher might have had reasons, ere this, to have quenched the burning desire for a school of the idealized type, but flattering hope cherished the flickering longing, and whispered words of encouragement in her ear.

May we anxiously await the time when our fond hopes will be realized and the steadfast citizens of Stanford will be stirred with a yearning for a higher standard of education and better qualified young men and women to hold the promising positions which await them.

Always remembering that

"There are duties to do in this work-a-day world,

We must work; we must worry, we must strive;

But back of it all, a pure motive sub-time

Will keep hope, the heart's mainstay, alive."

THE PLOW THAT SHEDS WHERE OTHERS FAIL.

This is a chilled plow modeled and constructed after the type of steel plows. It is lighter draft and sheds soil no other chilled plow will. In a word, it has proven to be a "short cut" to satisfaction and good crops. Chilled cutter on share, sloping landslide and long convex moldboard. The strongest share. All bolts for shares, landslide and moldboard are the same—quite a feature. The front is so low and the plow so rakish that nothing sticks to it except farmers, the crop maker. Remember, extra low front, very long moldboard, cutter on share and runs very light. Capacity, 19x12. Weight 135 lbs.

A PLOW THAT IS DIFFERENT

The same old story but with a new front. This plow is high and bold, with a sharp cutting edge, and gets a new cutter with each new share. It meets with favor by all who appreciate this feature in a two-horse plow, as it is equally good in a one-horse plow. It was designed and made on the suggestion of those who plow—those who know. It will attract and make friends by its style, symmetry, and, we may say, new if not novel features. Has two bolts in share and an extra long beam. Capacity 6x3. Weight, 70 lbs.

A DOUBLE SHOVEL WITH DOUBLE VALUE.

Why double value? Simply because of superior material and construction. To those who know the Chattanooga Double Shovel Plow no argument is necessary. We are "lifting out hat" to the stranger to attract his attention.

He wants what we have if he only knew we had it.
Read this: High Carbon Steel Blades fastened with two bolts. Steel Feet with correct bend so they don't need resetting before used. Width between blades adjustable.
The best material, fashioned and finished in the best way. That is all—and it is enough.

12052.

Full Brother to Estelle No. 219. Sired by Zileadi Golddust, 4400—by Golddust 150, by Vermont Morgan and on to Justin Morgan. The dam of Zileadi Golddust was by Imp. Arabian stallion Zileadi. The dam of Dorsey Golddust is Florence by Golden Mingo Chief, a son of Gaff's Comet Morgan.

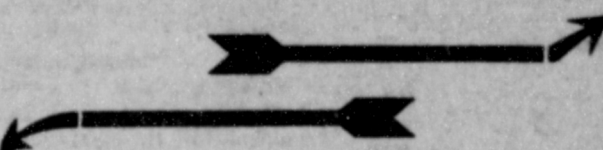

Note—This is an intensely inbred Morgan stallion, the blood now in demand. A rich dappled bay, black points, 16 hands high, 1200 pounds stallion of great beauty and action, with speed and endurance and unexcelled as a producer of high class show, road and Eastern horses. The records of his produce both in show and sale rings show his value and merit as a producer of fine road, show and sale horses. A look at sire and colts will be convincing.

Will make the present season at my farm 2 1/2 miles from Stanford, Ky., to approved mares at $15 to insure a living colt. Mares kept at 10 c a day. The best of attention given but no responsibility for accidents or escapes. F. REID.
